Plastic bag ordinances designed to reduce the use of plastic shopping bags was a topic of discussion. Hawaii is the first state to eliminate plastic shopping bags; retailers have to switch to reusable bags or paper bags that are at least 40% recycled materials.

It was mentioned there is some reuse benefit to the free shopping bags as liners for small household garbage containers. People also use them to clean up after their pets.

Commissioner Zimmermann created a Google Docs sheet as the start of an idea page for Environmental Stewardship. She shared the link to the Commissioners. She welcomes input and edits.

Other topic discussed include, Groot Industries, Inc. composting bins, the City's Comprehensive Plan, the proposed Municipal Campus, and the brownfield where it would likely be located.
